FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INITIATED INTO KAPPA DELTA PI

CHARLESTON, IL--Melissa Woods Williams, daughter of John and Norma Woods of Jacksonville, is among 56 students who were recently initiated into the Beta Psi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi at Eastern Illinois University.

Kappa Delta Pi, an international honor society in education, was organized to recognize excellence in education. An individual becomes a member of the society by invitation from a local chapter whose members have approved the candidacy. Such an invitation is based on high academic achievement, a commitment to education as a career and a professional attitude which assures the member's steady growth in the field of education.

A 1981 graduate of Waverly High School, Williams is a senior at Eastern majoring in home economics. She and her husband, Rick, and their son Gregory, reside in Charleston. She is a member of Alpha Sigma Lambda adult honorary and has been on the Dean's List.

Eastern is a residential university with an enrollment of 10,700 on-campus students. The university has as its highest priority teaching in its classrooms and laboratories supplemented by strong academic support services.
